Happy New Year from CSTC. Here is a short message from Owner / Founder of California Safety Training Corporation, Dr Ben Lavery III, and information about the upcoming year.

Transcript from the video:

Happy New Year to all of you, clients at CSTC or not.

We're all planning for the new year. There are many new law changes. We are actually scheduling for the whole year starting right now. Very very busy. Hope to see you. Hope you're safe.

Have a great and safe day, whatever, wherever you are and whatever you're doing.

2019 is another big year, with new regulations and higher fines, we have to all work harder, to stay safe, and stay in compliance. We have come a long way over the years, lifting our standards as an industry, but there is always more to learn and ways to improve.

We plan to release news blogs / videos over the upcoming weeks to give you more up to date information on the changes, like OSHA Logs, Pesticides, Respirator, IIPP (I2P2), EAPs, as well as introducing you to some of our trainers we have here at CSTC.

We are scheduling training for the coming months, so give us a call if you want to secure your dates.

Hope you have a safe and happy holidays, and a safe day.
